My Chaos

Roèy Vered

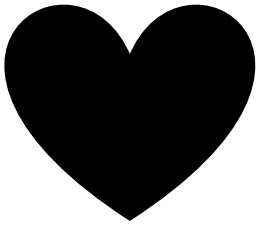

My chaos

To my family

Friends

Thank you for always supporting me

Good Enough

I fought for you,

And you disrespected me

I protected you,

And I felt attacked

I was your shoulder when you cried

I was your armor when you fought

I was your lighter when you were in the dark

Why haven’t you been mine?

I did everything for you

But I guess it wasn’t enough

I did all I could

But I guess it wasn’t enough

I suppose you think I wasn’t good enough

I gave you everything I have

But it wasn’t good enough

I cried for help

But I guess it wasn’t enough

I gave you my heart so you forget your heartache

And now I have a sorrow of my own

I think I wasn’t good enough

And if I’m not, then why are you still hurting me

(Run Away) Somewhere I'll Be Happy

I'm trying my best not to fall apart

Because it's so damn hard

And even though I'm happy some days

Most days, I'm so blue

There are cuts in my heart that I can't undo

And I want to run away

From all the places that I'm spending most of my time

All I want is to be someplace I'll be happy

Somewhere I'll be happy

And life is so unfair

I learned it at an early age

And my brain is so in rage

Thinking of all those disrespecting me every day

And sometimes I wonder

Is this life worth it?

If most people will hurt me if they can

And I want to run away

From all of the places that make me unhappy

Into somewhere I'll be happy

Circus

No, I’m no monster

No, I’m not a freak

Take me off your circus

I do not like it

No, I’m not your slut

Stay away from me

I am not one of your lovers

Take your brothel away from me

I might be a sinner

But I have moral lines

Take away your church

And don't judge me

Bitter

I’m so bitter

I'm so blue

And the pain I feel I can't undo

I'm afraid of losing my grandfather

I'm so scared of losing faith

I don't have many years with him

And there’s nothing I can do about it

I'm so bitter

I'm so blue

I guess that's my life

But It’ll never be my truth

2 Guys

We were young & in love

We didn't give a fuck

We were naive & stupid to believe

That everything is perfect

The world won't care about us

We thought

Men, we are wrong to think

That they can accept us

Can you believe

The way they looked at us

Can you believe

They care

This world is so ridiculous

From all the things

To be bother

By

Two guys

We were sure that our love was regular

But for them,

Religion comes first,

And they tear us apart for our love

They thought that they did God's wish

But they went against God

While stabbing us in the heart

Oh

Were they disgusted by us?

They panicked over us?

Like, who cares?

Who gives a shit about two guys who hold hands?

To be bothered by two guys

Why are you bothered by that?

Can you tell me why?

Einstein

Playing defense

You think you're smart

But to tear me down

It'll take more than that

Being evil

Calling names

You're a fucking bully

And you know it, babe

You said I'm not the smartest in the club

But you're the one who goes to clubs

Not me

Who the fuck do you think you are?!

You aren't no Einstein

You're a fool more than anyone I've ever met

You're so evil

Like playing the devil

And you won't understand this poem

Because your English is minimal at most

No,

You aren't no Einstein

Full of shit

I'm over it

Tired of being the nice guy

While you're smoking nice guy at work

And you said to me,

Mind your business

While I don't even care

But I will snitch if you keep being mean

Because karma's a bitch

No

You aren't no Einstein

No one will ever be again

Everything Has Changed

We were in love

But not in a romantic way

And we touched

But not in a sexual way

And then everything has changed

When I looked into your eyes

I saw a shift in how you look at me

And I started catching feelings

Suddenly, unexpectedly

I touched your butt

And I stopped that in a second

Saying I'm sorry

And then you kissed me

You kissed me

Everything has changed

And understanding that everything has changed

Everything had to change

Because I love you

For years now

I just haven't realized it

And now everything has changed

And I would never want it to go any other way

Forgive Myself

I’ve tried to forgive myself

On all of the mistakes that I made

But even though all of my efforts

I have failed

Failed myself and everyone around me

I’m too hard on myself

But that has toughened me up

I’m a warrior

I fight hard every day

So that one day, even if it’s just for that day

I will forgive myself truly and honestly

And be the man I’ve always wanted to be

A man who loves and is proud of every part of himself

The Bad and the Good

And finally find peace within

Darling (It Isn't What Love Is)

You have been waiting for your prince

And you have him, but he's acting weird

And you are starting to get scared around what seems

To be another angry rage

You shouldn't have to deal with it

Oh darling

Run away from him

Dear darling

You don't deserve to be around him

He's an angry man with a lot of rage

You need to stay away from him

Even if he says he loves you

It isn't what love is

It isn't what love is

You have bought all of his tricks

And you have joint kids

You see on the kid some cut wrists

His father says he'll kill you if you tell anyone about this

He gets mad when you dress like this

He can't escape his jealousy

You stand on your own as you should

And this macho gets upset and cuts you

Oh darling

Run away from him

I know you think this is love

But it isn't what love is

It isn’t what love is

Fly

Another day of feeling sad

But I'm kinda glad

That I'm not with you

But I'm not surprised that I'm feeling downhearted

Because the way you kept me grounded

Was evil even for you

And after all you put me through

There's something I wanna do

I wanna fly

I wanna upgrade my life

I want to try and try and try

To get back my self-hype

I want to feel alive

I just wanna fly

Another day of heartache

So addicted to you while you didn't give a shit

So hard for me to cry

Been depressed for years

I guess now it's time to let it go

And after all you put me through

There's something I wanna do

I just want to fly away from you

God, If You're There

God, if you're there

Give me the power to overcome this ache

God, if you care

Then let me feel free of my never-ending thoughts

God, if you're there

Then why are my people dying to this day

And I might not believe that you exist

But you gave me a handful of reasons not to

The Holocaust, October 7th, and all of the death

That the religious say “It came to teach us a lesson”

But you know, the lesson never learned

Because people are still hating on a trans woman just because she was a man before

Isn't she the lesson that he wants us to learn?

To accept everyone, not only a man, not only a Jew

God, I don't know if you're there

But if you do, I'm sorry, but I don't believe in you

I Don’t Like The Way You Behave

I don’t like the way you behave

And I don’t like the pain that you cause

You said you want me in the grave

This battle is no fun anymore

Everyone has their own opinions

And that’s okay,

Yeah, that’s just fine

But when you're hurting someone’s life

That’s when you cross the line

And I try to be calm and not fight below the belt

But you're pissing me off so bad

And no matter how hard I try not to attack

Everyone eventually breaks

I don’t like you anymore because of the way you behave

And you know what?

That’s alright,

Yeah, that’s okay

Hanging

I tried so hard to be the one you want

But you never wanted me at all

Talking on the first date the whole date

But never on the phone

And I tried to be connected

I texted you good morning every day

But you never contacted me on your own

You got my heart thrown

Gosh, what to feel?

I don't know

Why do you do this?

If you don't love me, why do you leave me hanging?

So hard I tried to get you off my mind

But my damaged heart didn’t keep my pain away

You never called me

You never texted

Only reply to me

And I know it sounds stupid

Feeling hurt by this

We were never a thing

But you made me feel something

I tried to be the best I can

I tried to be your everything

We had a little thing going

But your heart was never showing

And I tried to be a magnetic man

Holdin' my ticks when we ate

I was so happy after the first date

When we held hands

But you showed me the real you

After you understood I wanted love and no sex

I feel I give too many fucks about you

Oh, boy, how could you?

Be so cold to me like that

I thought we had something good

But I guess I was a fool

Oh, I never felt a broken heart

I guess now I do

I'm too damn sensitive

But I don't care

You shouldn't have left me hanging

I Hate To Leave You

I hate to leave you

But I know I have to

Because you’re not good for me

And be endlessly upset; it’s not what I want to be

I have to think about myself

And still, be strong for us both

Because you don’t want to give up

But I have to

Even though I hate that I have to leave you

I Thought

I don’t know if I should start

Cause I don’t want to cry anymore

About the pain they all caused

And, of course,

I’m always wrong

They want to blame my disorder for everything?

What do they want?

I don’t even know

I wish I could see what their hearts show

And then I’ll know

Gosh, I am not sure I want

Do you hate me?

Then why do you act like this?

Do you blame me?

And still,

Did you ever look at yourself?

Oh my God,

Tell me

Dear Society,

Why do you do this to me?

Tell me,

Why do you act as if you hate me?

Why?

Why are you always looking to pick a fight?

Tell me what I ever did that I never got your love?

But I know that you shouldn’t chase after someone who doesn’t love you

Oh, I thought

I thought

I thought that God gave blessings

That I'll love

God gave me strength

That almost no one ever gets

So, tell me

Just tell me

Why do you act like this?

And I'll never be this regular guy

I will never be this guy you want

But still, I'll never lose hope

But even my strength has limitations

I'm choosing to let go today

Stop looking for love and getting aches

I'm choosing me

So now, yes, I'm letting go

I know that’s what I want

I love me

Love is my way

Love is my path

Love is everything to me

I used to be so negative

Now I see the world brighter

Love has shown me the way

Love me or not

I love myself, and you can't take that away from me

Despite the hurt I’m feeling by the hate I get

And although I’m thrown into the craziness of the world

I still love me

I still love me

Hate is something that I'll always have to deal with

They hate me, and it is what it is

It's always going to be like this

And honestly, I don't care, Not Anymore

Because I love me

Proud

I am proud of who I am

I have no shame in the way I was born

God made me this way

And that’s okay

Not everybody has to fit the mold

I am proud

and that’s a fact

You can try and take that away from me, but you won’t succeed

Because I’m not weak

I am the strongest I’ve ever been

I am proud

And so you should be

Because being different is not a bad thing

It’s a cause of pride

So, you should be proud

I'm Gonna Stay Strong

I'm crying over my scars

But I know my pain won't stop me now or ever

I am a survivor

I am a fighter

And sometimes I feel sad

Sometimes I feel bad

But I won't let myself fall

I've got to stay strong

I have to hold my head up high all along

I've fought life

And won so many times

So, I'm gonna stay strong

Like A Lightning

Sometimes I think no one truly loves me

Like all my friends will disappear and leave me lonely

And yes,

I have my family,

But they want me to be independent

So, I try not to call them, and I'm just sad all by myself

My best friend was having a BBQ when she said she was busy

I thought she was studying or working,

But I was just deluding myself

Is there really anybody there for me?

Do they really care for me?

I feel so sad and lonely all of a sudden

It comes like lightning and hits me

My heart is beating but not quite full

And I haven't had a girlfriend in a while
I've never dated someone who's my type
I went for the first one who wanted me
Cause how can I allow myself to be picky
And I haven't had a boyfriend in forever
I can't wait for my first one
I hope he won't abuse or cheat or whatever
Cause I already feel so alone

Yes,
I am living,
But in my soul,
There is something Insecure
Maybe I'm just deluding myself
It had hit me, like lightning

I never want to ever feel like that again

Lost & Founds

It's so easy to lose a friend

But it is so hard to make amends

You were there every time

And suddenly, you just stayed away from me

Why?

I did nothing wrong

I never hurt you

I gave you my all

And you left me at the lost and found

You were such a good friend

And now you're so distant

I tried to reach out

I love you so much

But you don't love me enough

To stay with me through all the ups & downs

I did nothing wrong

I never hurt you

I gave you my all

And you left me at the lost and found

It's heartbreaking

To see us fall apart and lose each other

It's devastating

That all those years have gone to the trash

I did nothing wrong

Nothing

My Chaos

I'll never be this model-like man

In the end, I am not superhuman

And I can't escape the way I love men

I bet you'd like me better if I'd love women

And say a prayer and amen

But I am me

I'm just being myself

And I don't feel like I should apologize for that

This is who I am for better and for worse

Shining between all of my chaos

Find the light in all of my chaos

I've been blue most of my life

I guess my mind doesn't know how to be happy

And I still wait for the guy who'll say with pride "I love Roèy; this is my guy"

But it seems I can't find him

Maybe he isn't exist

But I have hope one day I'll find the man of my dreams

He'll be so charming

Won't smoke cigarettes and be kind to me

Oh, will it ever be?

While I am me?

And when I die, will they all cry?

Or will they celebrate my departure from this world?

And now I know I am loved, but is this enough to overcome the hatred I feel right now?

I am me

I’m just being myself

Will my chaos ever end?

I guess I’ll know one day

I'm Strong Until I'm Not

You’ve been through so much

And so am I

But I love you so much that I crush your demons for you

But I need your help

I need your trust

I know it's been hard

But don't let go of all the work we’ve done

I stopped working because I wanted to get you out of that hospital

And I knew you’d never heal

But I got you as far as you can go

Still, it's hard for me

Because you're my baby

I'm strong until I’m not

I gave you my all

So, there's nothing left for me

How could I let that be?

I'm strong until I'm not

Guess love takes its toll

I love you more and more

But I can't be strong anymore

I'm strong until I’m not

I'm strong until I'm not

I don’t trust people

But I trust you

I raised you since you were born

Damn it,

I created you

So, show me some respect

I’ll do anything for you

And I hope you'll do the same if I need you one day

I'm strong until I'm not

I'll die for you

But I hope I'll never have to

I hope you'll be an independent man

Except for being happy,

It's all I wish for you

I'm strong until I'm not

But I ain't gonna break

My family, it's all I'll take with me forever

And when you aren't strong,

I'll be there for you

Even when I'm not strong enough for me

Know better

I should have known when you looked at me with your sparkling eyes

That you’re not good for me

That you’re unworthy of me

But when I'd looked into your eyes

I believed my lies

That you are a prince

But you're nothing but a thief

Just stole my heart and left

On & off,

On & off,

On & off

Before we became something at all

Too afraid to wake you

Because I've been too desperate to need you

You had my heart on your fingernails

But you didn't want me at all

I was too weak

I was too sick

So I let you play with my heart like a violin

I should have known better

Then, to let you in

I remember it like it was yesterday

How I held your hands

Lived for the light in your eyes

I fell in love too quickly

Too hard to realize that I was letting you into my heart

Before I even closed my eyes

Fall for your shit, not for what you have inside

I was too naive

I didn’t listen to the voice within

I couldn't see the fraud that was amid

You

Oh,

I should’ve known better

My Devastated Heart

Couldn't you see the way you've hurt me?

Oh

Do you feel pain like the one you caused me?

Now I'm so afraid to fall in love

Because now I know it hurts so much when it ends

Why does it end?

Every time I close my eyes

I feel my enhanced heartbreak

I worked so hard to keep it all together

Glued every broken piece of my devastated heart

I tried so hard

Couldn't you see that you brought me ache?

I loved it so much that I let my heart break

Oh

Don't you feel bad just like I did?

Was the heartbreak mutual?

Or did you just like to hurt me?

Every time I close my eyes

I feel my enhanced heartbreak

I tried so hard

I fought not to fall apart

Glued every piece of my broken heart

I fought so hard

Yeah, I tried so hard

Oh Dolly

Oh Dolly

If I had just one more day with you

I would hug and talk to you like you knew how to understand me

How to talk back to me

I would stay at Mom and Dad's to be with you

And even though you were only a dog

You were my family

You were like a sister

Oh Dolly

I love you so much

And it might be odd to write a poem about a dog

But I write with my heart

If I could only hold you just one more time

I would kiss you in the mouth

Like you always wanted me to

And honestly, like I used to do

When we were both young

Oh dolly

I love you with all of my heart

You were the one who taught me unconditional love

Oh dolly

I love you so much

What if I Die?

When I was younger

I used to think everyone hated me

I had no one to trust

Yet so many people whom I loved

That I felt didn’t love me back

And I used to think

What if I die?

Will anybody cry?

Now I know they will

I know so many will

Who The Hell Do You Think I Am?

Who the hell do you think I am?

Taking advantage of me

I'm a nice guy; it doesn’t mean I'm up for slavery

I'm the best at music, but you're mocking me

Say "you're such a good singer" while you're laughing at me

Who the hell do you think I am?

I'm not your little bitch

And when my feelings are hurt you say "you're soft like a jellyfish"

So soft but if you piss me Imma be sticking

Always smell good, but your business is stinky

I smell the disrespect from a mile away

You'd better put your eyes away

Cause' who the hell do you think I am?

Screw your "there's no other way" shit

If I want to, I'll be leaving

Leave you stuck like this

Who the hell do you think I am?

I'm not your little cleaner

Clean all your shit and solve all of your problems

I used to like it here, but now it's such torture

You think I'll stay?

Who the hell do you think I am?

Once Upon A Time

I don't know what I was thinking

Why I chose you

I guess I just needed love

But now I can’t pull through

I don't know why I'm still with you

After so many times that you hurt me

Once Upon a time

You loved me, and I loved you

And now after that passed some time

You don't love me

Once Upon a time

You don't love me anymore

So why do I still love you

And hate you so much

Can't make up my mind about you

I wish I only knew

I don't know what I ever found in you

I don't know why I ever loved you

It is like I was cursed

To always love you

Once upon a time

You loved me, and I loved you

No Matter What I Do

No matter what I do

I always feel alone and misunderstood

I'm trying to be the best I can be

But sometimes I feel too exhausted

Sometimes, it’s just too hard for me

But I'm pretty privileged

I barely feel the war

I'm working on myself rather than running from rockets

I'm blessed, I know

But it doesn't make me feel better

My Heart Is Meant To Be Broken

My heart is meant to be broken

By and only by you

You can destroy it

Because I love you

And I know it will hurt

But at least I've loved

At least I felt love in my big heart

Who's so thirsty to have someone fill the void I have inside of it

My heart is meant to be broken

And helpless too

Because it means I felt true love

Even if you didn't love me too

Piece Of Me

I know that I am probably wrong

That you're not feeling the same

I know I'm not that strong

My heart has been broken a million times,

But never like this

You call me bro

And what I wanna know

Has there ever been a thought?

Have you ever liked me?

Have you ever wanted more?

Have you ever wanted a piece of me?

My heart gets torn

I don't know what the hell to feel

It seems like you want more

But I guess you ain't feeling the same as me

I am so damn tired of getting my heart broken

I'm not a wildflower

I don't want to be alone

You're so different than me

But you have such a good soul

We're friends, I understand this

But maybe we can go to dinner instead of the mall

You're killing me,

And I know it's not your intention

I'm bleeding,

And you hold my bandage

But I'd rather you hold my chest

I'd rather you'll be more than my friend

You call me bro

And all I wanna know

Have you ever wanted a piece of me?

Do you want a piece of me?
